

Fall 2013 Libr 100 Velarde

Quiz #1

(½ point)

Periodicals include: [check all that apply]

- scholarly journals
- e-books
- popular magazines
- newspapers
- statistics

(1 point)

List two ways to limit your search in the online public access catalog (opac).

- 1.
- 2.

(½ point)

Searching by keyword in a database such as a library catalog can lead you to controlled vocabulary terms and phrases that can help you find books on a topic even if they are in different locations in a library. What is the more official name for those terms/phrases?

---

(½ point)

Name the type of classification system used by College of San Mateo library:

---

(1½ points)

Put the following call numbers in the order they should be found on a library shelf. Write a number between 1-5 to indicate the order under each call number.

Q176	LB 3021	HA239	Q176	HA239
.H404	.N42	.L22	.H44	.L22
2011	1997		B34	M6

½ point

Web pages in Google search results are ranked according to the quality of information they contain. True or False? Circle one.

(½ point)

Articles in Wikipedia ...[check all that apply]

- are reviewed by editors before publishing
- can be edited after posting
- are written by experts
- are written by users
- can be edited anonymously